Officer Reports:BARON & BARONESS

Greetings unto the people of Rising Waters, from The Baron and Baroness of Rising Waters, Dmitri and Gema.

It is our profound hope that all members of our Barony are warm and safe at this chilly time of year. Sneaking up quickly is the spring, and with that comes Kingdom Crown Tourney. We look forward to experiencing the Barony's hard work from a different perspective. In this endeavour we are looking for award recommendations for this (and future) events. Please send us your suggestions as soon as possible so the scribes can have plenty of time to put pen to paper. If you are unsure what to recommend you are welcome to talk to us in person, call or email us. Feel free to use our OP (available on the Baronial website) to look up what awards people have already received.

We remain in Service to the Barony.

MARSHALLATE

Greetings Barony of Rising Waters.

This is my first official report as your Baronial Marshal. We have had great turn outs lately.

In the last month we have had a steady core group of fighters. We have been graced with the presence of fighters from Ben Dunfirth. Their Royal Majesties have also honored us by stopping by to lend us inspiration and insight.

If anyone needs armor made or repaired, I have the shop til mid April. So think what needs to be done and lets get going.

3 new suits were built this month which brings me to my end of rant..

I would like to welcome our 3 new fighters to the Barony. Ken, Jessica and Dylan.

Be kind and be safe, till next

Lord Hidetoro.

ARTS & SCIENCES

Greetings to everyone to whom this missive reaches.

It is with a glad heart that I take up the mantle of Baronial Arts and Sciences Minister from Lady Yllaria who has had held this post for the last four years and performed her duties with exemplary skill and organization.

It has been a slow transition into the office due to career obligations but many of those responsibilities have now been completed and I will have more time and brain-space to focus on this office. So I don't have much to report as now, but have many plans for the upcoming future.

Yours in service,
Valdr Jarnsmiðr.

SCA Announcements

Creation of the Order of Defense

Due to the large amount of information surrounding the additional peerage for rapier and cut and thrust, the Board of Directors decided to participate in a conference call on February 2, 2015. The Board received a large amount of additional comments and suggestions in the two weeks following the January 17 quarterly meeting. This was considered in addition to the first Board call for commentary on this issue.

At the February 2, 2015 special conference call meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board discussed the history of the APEC proposal process, the commentary received from the membership, and the various options available to the Board. The Order of Defense proposal was the result of many years of effort, and while the commentary from the membership opened the Board's eyes to other options and possibilities, the Board decided at this time to reconsider the proposal to change Corpora to create the Order of Defense. During the call a motion was made and seconded to approve the changes to Corpora, and such motion passed 6 votes for and 1 against.

Motion to approve the proposed changes to Corpora that will create the new peerage, Order of Defense, and direct Laurel Sovereign of Arms to submit such name and heraldry to the heraldic comment process, with the intention of opening the Order on May 1, 2015. Voted in favor of the motion: Arthur Donadio, Andrew Coleman, John Fulton, David Keen and Lisa May. Voted against the motion: Lisa Czudnochowsky. Chairman Scott Berk exercised his option to vote and did so in favor of the motion. Motion passed.

Motion in the matter of the Order of Defense to waive the requirements of Corpora Section IV.G. that the Crown consult the members of a peerage order prior to inducting new members of that order, but only in the case of the first three (3) members of the Order of Defense. Once there are three members of the Order of Defense in a kingdom, the Crown must consult the Order per Corpora prior to adding members. Voted in favor of the motion: Arthur Donadio, Andrew Coleman, Lisa Czudnochowsky John Fulton, David Keen and Lisa May. Opposed: none. Chairman Scott Berk exercised his option to vote and did so in favor of the motion. Motion passed.

No candidate may be inducted into the Order of Defense before May 1, 2015. All candidates inducted into the Order of Defense on May 1, 2015, will carry equal precedence, regardless of the time of day each such candidate was inducted.

Five years ago, the enormous response in favor of a path to peerage was specifically focused on rapier and cut and thrust combat. When and if another martial activity engenders the response from the membership at large that rapier and cut and thrust did, when another martial activity has the depth, breadth and community as exists for rapier and cut and thrust, then the Board of Directors may investigate the possibility of facilitating a path to peerage for such martial activity. Comments are strongly encouraged and can be sent to:

Tornei de Coeur De Glace

Reported by Annabelle Makmyllane

As usual this was a lovely event. Bastille Du Lac does an amazing job at organizing and putting on a fun filled and interesting event. The pageantry was lovely during the procession and throughout the day. The fighting was honourable and looked like a lot of fun. The Tournament winners were; in Armoured Combat; Prince Steinar and Fencing; Queen Kaylah.

Court was well paced and many good gentles were recognized for their artistry and research. The Kingdom of Ealdormere is well blessed with good people who work hard and enjoy. I cannot remember all of the people who were recognized, as there were many well-deserved recognitions. The Pelicaning of Kyle Andrews was a fun ceremony a lot of smiles and "games" and the gotcha at the end was quite an unsurprising surprise. Congratulations to Graf Siegfried on his invitation to join the Pelican.

The feast was amazing! The flavours were beautiful and the dishes were well sized. Oddly, I could eat almost everything on the menu, so I came away more full than I am used to at normal feasts. It was an odd feeling for me. This is an awesome event that should not be missed. It is fun and joy in the middle of the cold and drudgery of winter definitely a bright spot. This is a great opportunity to socialize and enjoy the company of the many folks who make the journey.

Medieval Cook's Corner

Bor in Counfett. Recipe by Baroness Ariadne Athingana of Ravenglass

Greetings!

I recently dug out my copy of "In Service to our Middles: The Midrealm Book of Feasts and Foods" which I bought in the mid-1980s, and whose recipes I try every now and then.

This time it was Bor in Counfett. I put 1/3 cup each of honey and white wine in a saucepan along with a drop (measured in the cunning spoons given me by Her Excellency Baroness Annabelle) of ground cloves and a sprinkling of black pepper. While it came to a boil, I cut some pre-cooked ham into cubes and strips. The original version says to cook until thickened, but I didn't. I just simmered the ham in it for about 5 minutes, while the broccoli was cooking in the microwave. Yum!

You could also use cooked chicken, and if you add raisins to it you have Vyaund de Cyprys Ryalle.

Enjoy these versions of redacted recipes!

The dancers (pictured: Darius) enjoyed a diverse program of dance, enjoying the respite from winter.

TH Lady Margaret Raynsford models a costume for the ball, as Master Martin Bildner holds up the inspiring image from a 16th century manuscript detailing the phenomenon of Nuremberg's Schembart Carnival. Literally translated as "bearded-mask" carnival, the event was popular from 1449 to 1539. After the carnival's end, many lovely illustrated manuscripts known as "Schembartbücher" were created to document the ceremony's 90-year existence
